

Christ the Man

Brad and Janelle Spence

V1

Messiah came as mortal man with mortal blood and tears
He felt the tempter's constant lies whispered sweetly in His ears
Real tears he shed in grief and pain for a world found trapped in sin
Real blood he shed in love and grace to bring new life again

Chorus 1

And Oh that perfect deity born upon the earth
He took on flesh like all of us and lived to be a curse
I trust The God with human scars who bled unselfishly
He set aside his royal robes to buy new clothes for me.

V2

This loving Man all praise I owe came chasing after me
He plucked my soul from death and hell and keeps eternally
This risen man now reigns on high interceding for His own
Inviting all who seek His name to join His heavenly home.

Bridge

Spotless robes of righteousness for my rags of shame
Christ has bought what I could not Glory to His Name

Chorus 2

I trust The God with human scars
Who bled unselfishly
He set aside his royal robes
To buy new clothes for me.
